

Poetry Path

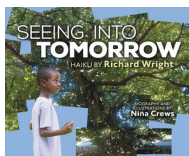

BINGO

How do you see yourself in the natural world? As you make your way along the Poetry Path observe the world around you to discover both poetry and nature. Circle five things you've observed and you've got BINGO!

 A PLANT	 A POEM WITH ALLITERATION	 THE QUESTION THAT INSPIRES ONE POET	 A RIVER FOUND IN AFRICA	 BIODIVERSITY
 A SHADOW	 A BIRD	 A KEY TO THE SCIENTIFIC METHOD	 AN ANIMAL	 A SMELL
 A SCIENTIST	 ECOSYSTEM	FREE SPACE	 BIOSPHERE	 THE SKY
 AN ANIMAL SOUND	 A FOSSIL	 SOMEONE READING	 A TREE	 AN ANIMAL IN MOTION
 BUTTERFLIES	 A PATTERN	 A PLANET	 LEPIDOPTERA SPECIMEN	 A RIVER FOUND IN THE UNITED STATES

Poetry Path

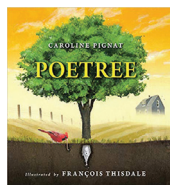

Explore poetry and nature by checking out one of these books at the Milwaukee Public Library! View booklist online at www.mpl.org/urbanwildlife.

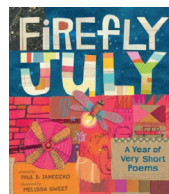

Seeing into Tomorrow
by Richard Wright

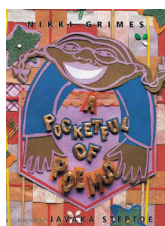

Hidden City
by Sarah Grace Tuttle

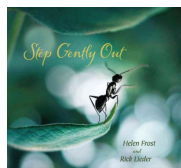

Poetree
by Caroline Pignat

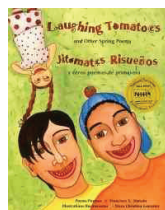

Firefly July selected
by Paul C. Janeczko

A Pocketful of Poems
by Nikki Grimes

Step Gently Out
by Helen Frost

Laughing Tomatoes and Other Spring Poems
by Francisco X. Alarcón

Outside Your Window
by Nicola Davies

Poetry Path Map

Visit www.fieldworkmke.org for more information.